Collection of personal information

When you engage in certain activities on this site, such as ordering products, downloading software, or entering contests, Kobalt Law may ask you to provide certain information about yourself by filling out and submitting an online form. It is completely optional for you to engage in these activities. If you elect to engage in these activities, however, Kobalt Law may require that you provide us personal information, such as your name, mailing address, e-mail address, and other personal identifying information. When ordering products on the site, you may be asked to provide a credit card number.

When you submit personal information to Kobalt Law, you understand and agree that Kobalt Law and its subsidiaries, affiliates and trusted vendors may transfer, store, and process your customer profile in any of the countries in which Kobalt Law and its associates maintain offices.

Kobalt Law collects this information in order to record and support your participation in the activities you select. If you order a product, for example, the information is used to register your license and rights, if any, to technical support, upgrade discounts, or other benefits that may be made available to registered users. If you enter a contest, information is collected to qualify the entry and contact you regarding the contest or prize awards. Kobalt Law also uses information that you provide as part of our effort to keep you informed about product upgrades, special offers, and other Kobalt Law products and services.

Kobalt Law recognizes and appreciates the importance of responsible use of this information. If you do not want the information you provide to Kobalt Law to be used to inform you of other products and special offers from Kobalt Law, and you indicate this preference when you provide the information to Kobalt Law, Kobalt Law will honor your preference.
